

Menningarmiðstöð Hornafjarðar

The cultural center operates six museums in the municipality. There, the municipality's cultural heritage is registered and preserved, as well as introducing locals and visitors to the municipality's culture, arts, and history. Annually, many events are organized by the center and held for the sake of education, reflection, and enjoyment. The cultural center constantly strives to inspire residents and visitors through culture and to educate them about the cultural heritage of Austur-Skaftafellssýsla to promote the municipality itself

The Library

The library serves the role of providing information, increasing knowledge, and providing entertainment for all district residents. At the library, you can read newspapers and various magazines. The children's section of the museum is pleasant and popular with the younger generation, where you can always color, make beads, or do crafts, and then grab a good book. The collection of books in the museum is very diverse and has around 34 thousand volumes.
